

WHY - - NOT JOIN?

OTHERS ARE.

"The New Century Book Lovers Club."

Read the latest books as issued for only $3.00 a year.

INVESTIGATE.

THE STILES DRUG CO.

Cor. Eastern Ave., and R. R. Street.
Let us show you our line of Stationery.

TOWN NEWS.

BARNET.

Claude Gillilan, now located at New London, Conn., was in town over Sunday.

Lyman Brock is at home for a few days from St. Johnsbury.

Herbert Stanley was at W. S. Brock's the past week.

Joseph Withington of Illinois and Miss Hattie Withington of Boston visited their sister, Mrs. Joseph Boardman, during the past week.

Miss Nellie Laughlin has returned from Nova Scotia and will attend the summer school at Plymouth, N. H., for two weeks, before commencing her year's work of teaching at Whitefield.

Mr. and Mrs. Cloud Miller from Marshalltown, Iowa, and Thomas Oikerson from Kansas, have been guests at the home of W. S. Brock, the past week.

Herbert Chase and his sister from Boston, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Roy the past week.

Miss Effie Goodell is spending Old Home Week with her parents in Cabot.

Mrs. Albert Hoyt and her invalid son from Everett, Mass., have returned to Barnet again and are stopping with Mrs. Cook.

A party of eight left Barnet Aug. 6th for the Pan-American exposition at Buffalo.

Hamilton Stuart has moved to his house in West Barnet and Mr. Donly will move his family into the house vacated by Mr. Stuart.

Mrs. George Brown had the misfortune to lose her watch the day of the "Kilties" in St. Johnsbury. She advertised it and her advertisement was answered by a party in North Danville, saying a watch answering her description had been found and that she could have the watch by proving property. Monday last Mrs. Brown went to Danville and found the watch to be hers.

The towns of Peacham and Barnet will celebrate one day of Old Home Week together Wednesday, at Harvey's Pond, West Barnet. A picnic dinner is the order of the day and everybody is invited and will be welcome.

For Over Fifty Years.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething. It distributed at night by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth, send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. It will relieve the poor little sufferers immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup."

WHEELLOCK.

Prof. O. D. Mathewson entertained friends from Barre last week, at his summer home.

I. T. Laff and family went to Newport last Thursday for a two weeks' outing.

Ora Gray is at home visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Gray, and friends in town.

A heavy hailstorm visited this vicinity last Thursday, doing considerable damage to corn and gardens.

Clara Peak is at work at R. A. Craig's. Mrs. A. Craig went to Lyndonville last Thursday, to attend the district meeting of the W. R. C.

A. Craig and wife, with the Misses Ayer, spent a very enjoyable day at the basket picnic of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. of West Burke, at Willoughby lake, Tuesday.

Jell-O, The New Dessert.

pleases all the family. Four flavors: Lemon, orange, raspberry and strawberry. At your grocers. 10 cts. Try it today.

NORTH WALDEN.

Mrs. David Corson is quite ill. Mr. and Mrs. Scholes and little daughter started this week for their home in Providence, going via Lyndonville.

Mrs. Celia Sanborn has returned to Worcester, Mass.

George Downer and wife attended the wedding of his son in Stowe this week.

John Taylor and family and Mrs. Esther Rollins have moved to Mrs. Rollins' old home.

Mrs. Harvey Kingsbury has been stopping with relatives here for the past week.

Mrs. Webster, a native of this town, now of Haverhill, Mass., with her daughter has been visiting her brother, Len Cameron.

That Beautiful Gloss

comes from the varnish in Devco's Varnish Floor Paint; costs 5 cents more than a quart though. Sold by Flint Bros.

GREENSBORO.

Rev. Dr. Lord is enjoying his vacation at Aspenhurst.

Rev. P. M. Snyder of Rockford, Ill., delivered a very interesting sermon at the Congregational church Sunday morning.

Charles Wright of Worcester, Mass., and George Cook of Florence, Mass., are visiting their former homes in town.

Miss Grace Frisk of Boston is spending her vacation with her parents.

John Patterson and wife of Barre, and Mrs. Gene Thompson of Middlebury, are visiting at Mrs. M. J. Simpson's.

Quite a number from this place attended the concert at Craftsbury Thursday evening.

John Bedell from New Hampshire was in town over Sunday.

We are getting frequent showers nowadays and the pastures are looking much greener than a few days ago.

We understand that Miss Clara Collier, who went from this town a few years ago as missionary to China, and had to flee to Japan during the uprising, has returned to her station.

Edwin Baker returned to Boston Saturday evening.

David Wiley had three toes badly crushed one day last week by a heavy timber falling on them while he was tearing out some stanchions in his barn.

A. S. Calderwood reports the sale of five building lots on the lake shore last week.

About 160 persons gathered at the annual "Young" picnic at Dea. John McEllan's, Thursday afternoon, and it is needless to add that all enjoyed the time.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dow returned Saturday from a visiting trip in Washington county.

Mr. and Mrs. James Crown of Ryegate and Mrs. Charles Rutledge and children from Orford, N. H., visited at Hibbard Rutledge's and Thomas Wilson's last week and attended the "Young" picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. George McLean of the hotel force return to their former home this week. We are sorry to have them go.

J. W. Campbell found a large deer in the pasture with his cows when he went for them a day or two ago.

Road Commissioner Piper is improving the road between the village and bend by blasting out some of the numerous ledges.

Shake into Your Shoes

Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder. It cures painful, smarting, nervous feet and ingrowing nails, and instantly takes the sting out of corns and bunions. It's the greatest comfort discovery of the age.

Allen's Foot-Ease makes tight or new shoes feel easy. It is a certain cure for sweating, callous, and hot, tired, aching feet. Try it today. Sold by all druggists and shoe stores. By mail for 25 cents in stamps. Trial package free. Address, Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

EAST HARDWICK.

G. L. Johnson and wife returned to their home last Thursday.

M. L. Dow and wife left for their new home in Rutland the last of the week.

L. H. Wentworth and wife are the guests of Geo. Nelson.

Mrs. J. P. Byington and daughter Martha are visiting friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Fuller of St. Johnsbury are guests at Frank Fuller's.

Mrs. Grace Brickett, who has been spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. J. G. Hale, returned to her home in St. Johnsbury, Monday.

Mrs. Martha Woods is visiting friends in town.

The grove meeting held Sunday afternoon was a very interesting and well attended one, 200 being present.

Caledonia Grange held a very interesting meeting, Monday evening. They were favored by having with them National Master, Aaron P. Jones of Indiana.

Mrs. Otis Hovey and children are the guests of J. H. Hovey.

Miss Florence Williamson, who has been spending her vacation at home, has returned to Hardwick.

The people of East Hardwick will observe Old Home Week, with a picnic in Albee's grove, Thursday, Aug. 15. All are invited to be at the picnic.

Use Allen's Foot-Ease.

A powder to be shaken into the shoes. Your feet feel swollen, nervous and hot, and get tired easily. If you have smarting feet or tight shoes, try Allen's Foot-Ease. It cools the feet, and makes walking easy. Cures swollen, sweating, ingrowing nails, blisters and callous spots. Relieves pain and burnings of all pain and gives rest and comfort. Try it today. Sold by all druggists and shoe stores for 25c. Trial package FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

GROTON.

Bert R. Ricker, son of B. M. Ricker, the well known driver of this place, was accidentally shot on Monday of last week by Benny Welch, a 14-year old boy of Lowell, Mass., and died from the effects of the wound Wednesday. The parties were camping at Groton Pond and Mr. Ricker with shot gun in hand started in pursuit of a bird. The Welch boy followed with a 22 calibre rifle; in some way the rifle was discharged and the ball entered Mr. Ricker's side. The wounded man was brought to his home and given every possible attention, but on Tuesday he began to grow worse and continued lying until his death. Mr. Ricker was 26 years of age and was very popular with his friends. He was a member of Unity Lodge, I. O. O. F. The funeral was held at the Methodist church Saturday, Rev. W. R. Mather officiating.

Suit has been brought by Ira Ricker, of this place, against Chief of Police C. E. Demeritt, of Montpelier, to recover damages in the sum of $200 for the alleged detention of dogs belonging to Mr. Ricker, July 2. The case is returnable at Groton, August 19.

Joe Rizzi & Co. shipped last week the largest and finest cut monument ever sent from Groton. It was of sarcophagus design and all finely hammered work. The monument was in eight pieces and filled three cars. The job was cut for the firm of C. E. Tayntor & Co., of Barre, and was shipped to New York.

A St. Johnsbury Woman Asks

"Have you a paint that will last two weeks?" Yes, we have Devco's; it has a beautiful gloss and will wear two years if properly applied. Flint Bros.

LYNDONVILLE.

Riverside Lodge, I. O. G. T., installed these officers last week: Scott McDowell, C. T.; Miss Lilla D. Carpenter, V. T.; Mrs. H. Wilmarth, Sec.; Mrs. Florence Camp, A. S.; Miss Bessie Aldrich, F. S.; Mrs. Grace Hunter, Treas.; Earle Howard, M. R.; Miss Grace Denmore, D. M.; N. L. Parker, Chaplain; Cora Frasier, G.; Henry Kemp, Sentinel; E. M. Campbell, P. C. T. E. M. Campbell and Mrs. Florence Camp were elected as representatives to the Grand Lodge which meets at Randolph, October 9. Miss Lilla D. Carpenter and L. N. Parker are the alternates. This lodge now has 129 members and is the largest in the order in the state.

The South Barton base ball club came here last Saturday and vanquished the Lyndonville by a score of 13 to 12. It was an interesting game and was not decided until the last man was out.

Horace W. Locklin, has purchased of the town of Lyndon a fine building lot on Highland avenue and Prospect street.

A large party from this vicinity are planning to go to Buffalo the last week in August.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Lyndonville Fair held at the Union House last Saturday, it was voted to have a three days fair instead of four days as voted at the annual meeting. The dates selected are September 24, 25 and 26. The directors organized by electing L. B. Harris, president, and A. C. McDowell, secretary.

The Lyndonville Band will furnish music at the Newport Fair.

Editor Wells of the "Journal" is sending to his friends cards announcing the birth of Harold C. by Wells on August 5, 1901.

Mrs. F. E. Winslow and Miss Bernice Winslow have returned from Worcester, Mass. Mr. Winslow expects to move to Worcester within a few weeks.

J. F. Webber and wife have returned from their wedding trip.

A. H. Walter accidentally received a hard blow on the head at the railroad machine shop a few days ago which temporarily disabled him from work. A "Traveler's" accident policy makes his pain a little easier to bear.

Rockwell's Theatre Co. have been here all the week and have played to a good sized audience every evening.

Mrs. J. S. Buell and two children have returned from Malone, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Harris are spending their vacation in New York state.

Mrs. Geo. Short is visiting relatives in Sherbrooke.

Miss Della Foster of Groveton, N. H., is in town for a few days and receives a hearty welcome from her many friends here.

Tortured A Witness.

Intense suffering was endured by witness T. L. Martin of Dixie, Ky., before he gave this evidence: "I coughed every night until my throat was nearly raw; then tried Dr. King's New Discovery which gave instant relief. I have used it in my family for four years and recommend it as the greatest remedy for Coughs, Colds, and all Throat, Chest and Lung troubles. It will stop the worst cough, and not only prevent but absolutely cures Consumption. Price 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottle free at Flint Bros' Drug Store."

WEST DANVILLE.

Edmund Brickett is building an addition to the barn on his lot formerly occupied by the Brown block, for the storage of hay cut on the place.

Those who have not finished haying find the rainy weather a great detriment to their work.

Miss Esden, of Peacham, was in town Saturday on a business trip.

Mrs. George W. Armstrong, who has been ill for a long time, is so much improved in strength that she will be taken to Waterbury this week.

Charles Adams was home from St. Johnsbury Sunday. He was accompanied by a son of Presiding Elder Sherburne.

Mr. Martin of Peacham has been drawing the stone curbing that A. J. Goss has cut for the Congregational church at that place.

W. A. Morrill is at Walden laying the foundation for a silo for Frank Shaw.

Mrs. Frank D. Perkins and son have returned from Old Orchard Beach.

LYNDON CENTER.

Lyndon Institute.

The fall term at Lyndon Institute opens Sept. 2 under very favorable conditions. The slight deficit of last year has been paid by friends of the school who have also provided a fund to be used in putting the buildings in thorough repair. Miss Mabel Marr of Yarmouth, Me., has been engaged as preceptress in place of Miss Brock, resigned. Miss Marr is a graduate of Bates college and in scholarship ranked first in a class of 67. Since her graduation she has taught very successfully in Yarmouth academy. The school is entirely free from debt, the building in excellent condition and has an excellent corps of teachers. It is better prepared to do good work than ever before in its history.

Mrs. D. B. Stoddard has sold her real estate to E. M. Campbell, who will make extensive repairs to the buildings and occupy them this fall.

Eddie Carpenter went hunting last Thursday and was brought home with a bullet hole through his leg and the bullet in his boot, all caused by the accidental discharge of his revolver. Fortunately the bullet selected a route that was not obstructed by bones or arteries and he will doubtless be in condition for another hunting trip in a few weeks.

Rev. E. C. Clark, of Sutton, preached at the Free Baptist church last Sunday, in exchange with Rev. G. A. Downey.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Pusley, who have been spending their vacation in Harrison, Me., returned last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Stone took a carriage drive to Eden, last Friday, where they will spend some days visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. A. W. Morgan is visiting relatives at East Burke and Kirby this week.

The Ladies' Aid held a social at the church vestry next Thursday afternoon and evening.

Miss Parmlee of Waterloo, P. Q., is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. R. Q. McVicar.

Miss Fannie Gilman, of St. Johnsbury, is visiting at C. D. Hubbard's.

Lulu and Mildred Rice have returned from an extended visit at Newport Center.

Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Tedford have gone to Ocean Park to remain until Sept. 1.

Everett Davis is visiting his father, Dr. Frank Davis, at Everett, Mass.

Miss Minnie French of Belfast, Me., was in town last week.

Mrs. L. D. Hall is visiting friends at Rock Island, P. Q.

75 Per Cent. Have Dandruff.

Statistics from a prominent medical journal prove that three men out of every four suffer from dandruff. As dandruff unquestionably leads to baldness, it is fortunate that in Royal Dandruff Cure we have a positive cure, or future generations would be hairless. We sell Royal Dandruff Cure at 50 cts. per bottle, and will refund the money if it fails to cure. J. A. Stanton, druggist.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions, and financially able to carry out any obligation made by their firm.

WAGST & TRUAX, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

WALDING, KINKIN & MARTIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price, 75c. per bottle. Sold by all druggists. Testimonials free.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

HARVEY.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lewis visited at J. L. Frye's one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Moore visited friends in Cabot and Marshfield one day last week.

Mrs. Lettie Holmes of Westford is visiting her brother, A. M. Nay, for a few days.

Mrs. Nellie Walbridge has returned from Old Orchard.

B. R. Frye visited friends in McIndoes the first of the week.

Allen Bartlett is cutting the hay on the Joseph Farrow farm.

Every month thousands—every year millions—are hurried to untimely graves by insidious, deadly consumption. Don't trifle with your cough or your lung trouble. Cleveland's Lung Healer will cure you. It has a longer record of cures than any other lung remedy. We will give you a free sample bottle. Large bottle, 25 cents. F. G. Landry, druggist.

EAST BURKE.

Harry Gregory is home from the mountains.

Dr. Frank Farmer is visiting his parents at Belmont Farm.

Frank Houston, who runs the creamery at Mountain View, has gone to his home sick, and Emery Smith is working in the creamery.

Clarence Root and Richard Baldwin are still on the sick list.

Miss Cornelia Bemis has returned to Nashua, N. H.

E. A. Darling returned to New York city Monday.

Miss Katie Lauder has returned from her visit to St. Johnsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Volney Smith visited their daughter, Mrs. O. M. Jenkins, last week.

Mrs. William Belden is visiting at Island Pond.

The Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. Jennie Gilson Thursday afternoon this week, instead of Wednesday.

A Woman's Awful Peril.

"There is only one chance to save your life and that is through an operation" were the startling words heard by Mrs. L. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., from her doctor after he had vainly tried to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. Gall stones had formed and she gradually grew worse. Then she began to use Electric Bitters which wholly cured her. It's a wonderful Stomach, Liver and Kidney Remedy. Cures Dyspepsia, Loss of Appetite, Try it. Only 50 cts. Guaranteed. For sale by Flint Bros., druggists.

WEST BARNET.

The Warden farm is offered for sale in an advertising column and is an excellent bargain for some one. It is well located and in good condition.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Stuart are attending Pan-American exposition this week.

Mrs. Jane Colby of Worcester and Mrs. Orrin Colby of Swanton, visited at Mrs. S. R. Gilfillan's last week.

Miss Olive Chase, Herbert Chase and William Sauter of Boston are the guests of Mrs. A. D. Warden.

Mrs. Dr. Hamilton of Waterbury, Conn., is at her father's, Rev. J. Bole's.

Mrs. Janette Roy is visiting her sister in Barnet.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stuart have moved into their house at the sawmill.

W. A. Conant is visiting friends in Waterbury.

George Morrill of Passumpsic was in town a few days last week.

J. E. Smith, A. C. Ritchie, Miss Josie Brock and Mrs. Huntley have gone to Buffalo this week.

Paint Your Buggy for 75c.

With Devco's Gloss Carriage Paint. It weighs 3 to 8 ozs. more to the pint than others, wears longer; and gives a gloss equal to new work. Sold by Flint Bros.

BRADFORD.

Death of E. W. Robie. After a long illness, E. W. Robie died at 12 30 p. m. Tuesday, Aug. 6. Mr. Robie has been a long time resident of Bradford, but was born in Corinth. He married Jane J. Sawyer, Feb. 6, 1861, and answered President Lincoln's call for men three months later. When he returned from the war he went to farming and has followed the same ever since. He was a straight forward man in all his dealings and greatly respected by all. A wife, one son, Dr. W. F. Robie of Baldwinville, Mass., and a daughter, Mrs. F. A. Walker of this place, survive him. The funeral was held Thursday afternoon from his late home, Rev. A. H. Webb, officiating. The services were in charge of Washburn Post, G. A. R., of which Mr. Robie was a member.

Miss Finette Williams of Putney is visiting her aunt, Mrs. V. A. Doty.

Mrs. T. A. Chase and three sons returned from a week's visit at Guildhall last Friday.

W. B. D. Amy has been visiting in Laconia.

Joseph Eastman of Providence, R. I., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Frank Land.

Mrs. Merie Clark from Iowa is visiting her brother, Frank Avery. She will remain through Old Home Week.

Miss Alphena Porter of Boston is at Capt. P. S. Chamberlin's for a month.

Fred Adams, wife and daughter returned Tuesday from a week's visit in South Ryegate.

Dr. S. H. Sparhawk and children of St. Johnsbury were the guests of E. O. Leonard last week.

Miss Della Albee has been visiting friends at White River Junction.

Miss Vida Albee returned from Littleton last Saturday.

Miss Adelaide Heath is visiting relatives and friends in Lyndonville.

Mrs. Hattie Clayton of Ludlow visited Miss Maude Clark last week.

Fred Ernest, clerk in Bingham's drug store at St. Johnsbury, is at home for this week.

Rev. Charles H. Percival of Boston was the guest of Rev. H. J. Kilbourn last Wednesday.

Charles P. Dimick left Saturday for Buffalo to take charge of the Photo